

- Balancing of charge of the batteries to 100% irrespective of their initial state of charge (SOC) after giving the supply.
- Active and Passive cell balancing methods are used to balance charge and develop a model in MATLAB/Simulation.
- It helps in determining performance, longevity and safety by maintaining equal charge levels across all cells enabling efficient energy use and extending battery life by 2 years.

